

Office of the Dean of Students – Trinity College, University of Toronto.

September 23rd, 2024 - April 4th 2025.
: 1-3 Hours Per Week (up to 60-70 hours total)
5
: Tuesday, September 17th, at 9:00 am

Supervised by the Community Wellness Coordinators and the Wellness and Student Life Programming Assistants (WSPAs), the Wellness and Student Life Programming Volunteers will assist with the promotion, and implementation of programming for Trinity College students, focusing on health, wellness, and student life. The Wellness and Student Life Programming volunteers will have the opportunity to work closely with members of the

This is an unpaid, volunteer position. It is expected that Wellness and Student Life Programming Volunteers will work approximately 60-70 hours throughout the academic year (September – April). Certificates will be issued to all volunteers who successfully complete the role. This position is in the process of being recognized on the Co-Curricular Record.

As Trinity College Wellness and Student Life Programming Volunteers act as ambassadors for the College, they are expected to adhere to all non-Academic Policies of the College and University of Toronto, including, but not limited to; the [redacted] and the [redacted]. Trinity College Wellness and Student Life Programming Volunteers are expected to abide by the terms of their contract, and must acknowledge that they have read their job description. By applying for the Wellness and Student Life Programming Volunteer position, applicants acknowledge that the Office of the Dean of Students will review their academic history to determine suitability for appointment to this position.

To apply complete